Theories and History of Play Therapy

Offered by
Jane L. Johnson, LLC, LCSW,
Registered Play Therapist-Supervisor

online

January 20, 2018
8:30am – 3:45 pm

Theories and History of Play Therapy

History and theories of play therapy are a part of the continuing education requirements to become a Registered Play Therapist (RPT). We will explore the origins of today's major play therapy theories and historical contributions of professionals in the field. This workshop will ground you in play therapy theories so that you understand how they drive the play therapy approaches you use. With knowledge of current play therapy theories and supporting research you can make thoughtful and deliberate interventions with children.

Learning Objectives Participants will:

- 1. Learn about major theorists whose work had led to the development of a broad spectrum of play therapy approaches.
- 2. Be familiar with the impact of medical and social science on the growth and development of play therapy.
- 3. Be familiar with the variety of current play therapy theories and research that you can use to develop play therapy interventions.
- 4. Gain an understanding of how various play therapy theories are applied in a play therapy session.

Schedule for each day:

8:15 a.m. Sign-on and check-in
8:30 - 11:30 a.m. Morning session
11:30-12:30 Lunch break
12:30-3:45 Afternoon session
Handouts and certificate of attendance will be emailed
