Group Supervision for Play Therapy

Offered by

Linda Klein, LPC, RPT-S

November 8, 2025

8:30 am – 11:45 am

3-hour Live Webinar

Group Supervision for Play Therapy

Group supervision is a cost effective yet powerful way for clinicians to receive peer support, encouragement and obtain needed professional hours. Trust among the participant and supervisor is key for professional growth to occur. This workshop will provide essential paperwork examples and the “nuts and bolts” of how to set up and maintain a successful group for Play Therapy supervision.

Course Objective:

1. Set guidelines and discuss boundaries for effective group interaction for Play Therapy Supervision group.
2. Apply two online group activities that can be used with a Play Therapy Supervision group.
3. Compare the role of the Play Therapy Supervisor and the Person of the Play Therapist (POTPT).

Schedule for the day

8:15 a.m. Sign-on and check-in
8:30 am - 11:45 session with a 15-minute break

Attendees are required to complete a post-test and evaluation. Once these are returned a certificate of attendance will be provided via email.

What are attendees saying about Colorado Play Therapy Training?

Very Practical and in depth!

Good balance and use of experiential work and didactics!

What I found that was most helpful was the thorough explanation, hands-on experience and expertise!

Interactive learning! Time flew!

What I found most helpful was examples of activities and assessments; examples from real cases and the interactive dialogue!

I thought all that was taught was very informative and can be directly used in my practice!
